Youths Testify.

A case which will be watched by those interested in the pool room question, as it relates to youthful frequenters, was begun in Judge Rowman's court yesterday, the first called being that against P. H. Riley and Herman Welsa, proprietors of a cigar store and pool room at 6) East Clirst South street, charging them with contributing to the delinquency of a number of misors by permitting them to be in their pool room, and by selling them to be in their pool room, and by selling them to be in their pool room, and by selling them to be given the forenoon hearing of the case, and owing to the numerous arguments by counsel on various points of law, it is not likely that it will be concluded for several days.

The best pigeon show ever held in Utah and one of the best ever held in the west is the prospect for the pigeon show to be held in this city next week in connection with the Utah Poultry association exhibit. The Utah Pigeon club held an enthusiast's meeting last evening at 178 South State street to make final arrangements for the event. The assurance was given that a great many birds would be entered. Ribbons were exhibited for prize birds in the following varieties of pigeons: Fantalis. FIELDING MUST ANSWER TO COMPLAINTS HERE FIRST

The Salt Lake county authorities will not allow Frank W. Fielding, now under not allow Frank W. Fielding, now under arrest at Ogden on a charge of forgery at Seattle, to be taken north until he has answered to a charge here of not supporting his child. Sherif? Barlow Wilson at Ogden has been asked to turn the prisoner over to the sheriff here, but has refused on the ground that Seattle spoke first. The county attorney has taken the matter up and will settle the question whether another state can thus have a prior right over a prisoner arrested in this state.

Fielding may also be charged with polygamy. He admits he has two wives, but asserts he married the second wife, believing the first had secured a divorce. Fielding's first wife is now employed in Keith-O'Brien's store and is sometimes known as Miss Olive L. Lenzi, her maiden name. She was married to Fielding in this city Nov. 8, 1994, and they have one child, a daughter/now 3 years old.

Mrs. Fielding brought suit for separate maintenance and the custody of the little daughter, Aleen, on June 25, 1897. Fielding instructed Sam A. King to enterdefault for him, thinking from that attorney's letter that it was a divorce suit that had been started, and intending to allow his wife to secure the divorce. She had not asked for divorce, however, and the separate maintenance suit never came
